Appendix 4: HKPS - PERSONAL DATA (PRIVACY ORDINANCE)

In compliance with the Personal Data (Privacy Ordinance), the Society would like to inform applicants and Members of the following:

- I. On a permanent basis, the Society holds personal data of its current and past members. In order for the Society to process all applications for membership or for changes in membership in accordance with the Regulations of the Society, it is necessary for the applicant to supply the Society with personal data.
- II. The information requested in the application form is needed for the identification of the person and her/his educational and professional qualifications. The information is retained, so that in the case of later disputes, the qualifications forming the basis for the membership can be ascertained. The information may also be needed in connection with election to a higher status of membership.
- III. The data held by the Society relating to applicants and to Members will be kept confidential, but
 - A. The title, full name and membership status of Members will appear in the Society Membership Directory on the Society website, and these details may be released by the Society upon request; and
 - B. The Society may provide such information to:
 - (1) Any person under the duty of confidentiality to the Society, that is to staff members of the Society and to the members of the Council and its relevant Committees and Divisions, and
 - (2) Any third party holding a court order for the disclosure of the information.
- IV. The Society does not hold any personal data of persons whose applications for membership have been rejected by the Council on the recommendation of the Membership and Professional Standards Committee. The application forms and all supporting documents will be destroyed six months after the applicant has been informed of the rejection. Thereafter the Society only retains minutes to say that an application from a person of such a name has been rejected.
- V. Under the Ordinance:
 - A. Any individual has the right to check whether the Society holds data about him or her, and the right of access to such data,
 - B. Any Member has the right to require the Society to correct data relating to him or her, which are shown to be inaccurate,
 - C. Any Member has the right to ascertain the Society's policy and practice in relation to personal data and to be informed of the kind of personal data held by the Society.
- VI. In accordance with the terms of the Ordinance, the Society has the right to charge a reasonable fee for the processing of any requests for access to personal data.
- VII. Requests for access to data or correction of data or for information regarding policies and practices of data should be addressed to the General Secretary, the Hong Kong Psychological Society Ltd., at the Society's official address specified in www.hkps.org.hk.
